More than 1,000 Indigenous students are enrolled in our five Indigenous Catholic Community Schools (ICCS) in remote communities in the Northern Territory. The education of Indigenous students is, and has always been, a high priority since the earliest days of the Catholic Church presence in the NT. Our history shows that there has been a continuing commitment of resources, both personal and financial, to Indigenous education.

This commitment has expressed itself in many ways and in a variety of social and political contexts. For many years, Catholic Missions had the carriage of programs in the four remote Aboriginal communities where the Catholic Church has long been active. The Catholic Education Office assumed full responsibility for Catholic Education in these remote communities in 1989.

The five ICCS are in four remote Indigenous communities;

- ◆ Ltyentye Apurte, Santa Teresa
- ◆ Wurrumiyanga, Bathurst Island
- ◆ Wadeye, Port Keats
- ◆ Nauiyu, Daly River

Additional Community information is available in the Community specific fact sheets
