

Teach in the Territory

Can you make the difference in an Indigenous Catholic Community School?

Catholic Education Northern Territory has been delivering quality education and pastoral care for over 100 years and caters to more than 5,000 students in 17 urban and remote schools across the Territory.

If this sounds like you we have various teaching and school leadership positions available in Early Childhood, Primary and Secondary education to fill a number of two year contract positions in an Indigenous Catholic Community School for the 2017-2018 school years.

Interested applicants are invited to contact Sarah Brown for an information package.
